Just sharing answer from AI Copilot. What do you think? So AI Copilot's answer is: SUNDAY. It is saying: If it's "Friday," the question is different.

"Anong araw ang sinusundan ng Sabado?"

- Translation: "What day is followed by Saturday?"
- Answer: Sunday ("Linggo")

"Anong araw ang sumusunod sa Sabado?"

- Translation: "What day follows Saturday?"
- Answer: Sunday ("Linggo")

Both questions ultimately ask for the same information: the day that comes after Saturday. However, they use different verbs ("sinusundan" and "sumusunod"), which can create slight differences in how the question is framed, but the meaning remains the same in this context.

I hope this clarifies things! Is there anything else you need help with?

Mas katiwa-tiwala ba ang AI sa native speakers? Developers themselves say na hindi 'yan sobrang reliable.

Alright, here's what I got from MetaAI. And it gave me the right answer. Depende na rin on how you ask it. I read a screenshot here in the comments that MetaAI gave the wrong one which is Sunday.
